Chapter scholarships get a boost!

Leadership gifts reach 75% of $20K campaign goal

We asked and people gave. Since 1986, PRSA Puget Sound has raised money for its scholarship endowment fund to help ensure the success of the public relations profession. Forty-three scholarships have been awarded to students attending Washington colleges and universities.

We're nearing our goal of $20,000 by September 30 but we need your help too. Please support students like Emily Nasueda, Seattle University and Maria Alauddin, Gonzaga University, our 2011 scholarship recipients who are the future of our profession. Soon, we'll let you know how you can give online. For now, please mail a check made out to PRSA Scholarship Fund (PO Box 58530 Seattle, WA 98138) by September 30.

Thank you to the following people who have given so generously to the fund this year:

Bob Frause, APR, PRSA Fellow	Providence Health & Services
Jay Rockey, APR, PRSA Fellow	Kathryn Reith, APR
Pat Fearey, APR	Sue Brush, APR
Suzanne Hartman, APR	Erika Schmidt, APR
Roger Nyhus	Edelman
Julie Colehour	Bryan Cohen
Karen LaFlamme, APR	Cheri Brennan, APR
Neil Neroutsos, APR	Dave Marriott, APR
Dan McConnell	Pete DeLaunay, APR
Marilyn Hawkins	Linda Farmer, APR
Amy Turner	Elle Warmuth, APR
Brenda South	Beverly Holland, APR
Gary Sabol, APR	Jacque Coe, APR
Kauilani Robinson	Karla Slate
Katherine Boury	Jennifer Sutton

Your colleagues deserve an award – don't miss your chance to nominate them

Each year at our holiday gala, PRSA Puget Sound recognizes the many professional achievements of individual PR professionals in the Puget Sound area with the following awards:

- Jay Rockey Lifetime Achievement Award
- PR Professional of the Year
- Outstanding New Member of the Year
- Hugh Smith Community Service Award
- President's Award for Volunteerism

Look through your Facebook friends, your LinkedIn connections and the people around you who are doing good work and take the time to nominate them for an award. They deserve it.

Nominations (forms available online) are due September 23, 2011. Non-PRSA members are eligible for some awards as well (Professional of the Year and Hugh Smith Community Service Award).

Get Involved: PRSA 2012 International Conference in San Francisco

San Francisco will play host to the PRSA International Conference in October 2012. The San Francisco Chapter needs your help to create a memorable event for public relations colleagues from around the world.

Opportunities abound for participation, from serving as a local conference co-chair to chairing and participating in committees for hospitality, communications or sponsorships.

A group of PRSA-SF members has begun mapping out a plan for coordinating with National PRSA so that together we can deliver the best PRSA International Conference ever. If you'd like to contribute your energy to this goal, please take two steps:

1. Click on this link: <http://bit.ly/jteIVG> There you'll find brief descriptions of key local roles and responsibilities associated with planning this Conference. They are: Local co-chairs, and chair or member of the hospitality, communications or sponsorship committees.
2. If you're interested in any of these roles, send your name and contact information to Sande Smith, San Francisco Chapter President, at sandes@womensfoundca.org. There will be no shortage of spaces and places for members to apply their interests.

Thanks so much for participating in this exciting opportunity.

Support our chapter by volunteering

You and other local members contribute to the success of PRSA Puget Sound. A variety of opportunities are available throughout the year – supporting events, marketing programs, working with students and more! Your assistance is critical to bring the greatest value to our membership. For more information, contact Volunteer Coordinator Neil Neroutsos, 425-783-8444, or visit our volunteer page, which lists committees and contact information.

The Diversity Committee is currently seeking members. If you are interested in helping our chapter include and serve all of our community, contact Shirley Skeel, 253-879-2611, or Kathryn Reith, 425-936-1342.
