News

Congratulations to our newest APR!

Aaron Wyatt, Communications and Legislative Director, Washington State Board of Education, is the latest chapter member to achieve Accreditation in Public Relations (APR). The Accreditation Program is the profession's only national post-graduate certification program. It measures a public relations practitioner's fundamental knowledge of communications theory and its application; establishes advanced capabilities in research, strategic planning, implementation and evaluation; and demonstrates a commitment to professional excellence and ethical conduct. Aaron is the third chapter member to achieve this status this year. Go to the chapter website APR page for more information on accreditation.

Beat the rate increase

Dues for PRSA national will increase by $30 for anyone joining or renewing their membership on or after January 1. Members who renew (regardless of their renewal date) or initiate PRSA membership by Dec. 31, 2011, will still receive one additional year of membership at the 2011 base membership rate of $225. (This rate may not be used to pre-pay multiple-year memberships, however.) Get your payment end by the end of the year and you will get a full year of membership at the old rate and get the new membership benefit of free webinars, too.

Contribute to the future of our profession

If you can't attend the Holiday Gala on December 6, you still can contribute to the PRSA Puget Sound Scholarship Fund, and the future of our profession, by making an online donation. Each year, PRSA Puget Sound awards two $2,500 scholarships to students pursuing a career in public relations. This year, PRSA Puget Sound members have contributed more than $17,000 to the Scholarship Fund, which is about 85% of our goal for 2011.

You can support the future of our profession and help us reach our goal of raising $20,000 by December 31, 2011, by visiting www.prsapugetsound.org. Click on the "donate" button on the main page to make a one-time, tax deductible contribution.

Thank you, sponsors!

Thanks especially to PR Newswire, the chapter's platinum level sponsor. Sponsorships help the chapter pay for administrative costs and ensure solid fiscal health. Without our sponsors, event costs would have to be higher. Thanks to all event and chapter sponsors for this year: your support of our chapter is tremendously appreciated.
