Flights of Fancy – Join the 787 Dreamliner Tour March 14

Event Planning on Steroids: The Boeing Dreamliner, Roll-out to First Delivery

Back in 2007, then Boeing 787 Communications director Yvonne Leach had her work cut out for her: satisfy the world's hunger for detailed and time sensitive information about Boeing's revolutionary new airplane, the 787 Dreamliner.

Now Communications director for Boeing Commercial Airplanes Programs, Yvonne will lead us through the ins and outs of event planning on a macro and micro scale. Whether you run a small shop or are part of a large PR team, you will gain helpful information from her presentation. And enjoy a VIP tour of the 787 factory!

When: Wednesday, March 14, 5:00-7:30 p.m.

Cost: $35 members and students; $45 nonmembers

Includes: hors d'oeuvres and soft drinks, transportation, tour and presentation

Directions: Take I-5 to exit 189 in Everett; continue onto Highway 526. Take 526 about 2 miles to Seaway Blvd. exit, which curves to the right. At the first light, turn left, then immediately turn right into the parking lot.

We will meet in front of the building at the visitor entrance.

Note: Closed-toe shoes are required.

Boeing security requires all visitors to be badged.

RSVP Deadline: Monday, Mar. 12, 10 a.m.

Register online or call the PRSA office at 206-623-8632.

Awards Event of the Season!

Move over Grammy and Oscar . . . the Totems are THE award sensation of the season! A glamorous crowd of more than 100 joined friends and colleagues on Thursday, Feb. 9 at the ACT Theatre for a fabulous evening of fun and entertainment. Billy Crystal has nothing on our own Pat Cashman! This year drew 63 entries with 24 Totems and 16 Certificates of Excellence awarded. That's up from just 42 entries in 2011!

Seattle Art Museum's (SAM) public relations program for Picasso: Masterpieces from the Musée National Picasso, Paris exhibit, took home Best of Show. As the keynote presenters for the evening, SAM's Calandra Childers and Cara Egan gave guests at the Totems a behind the scenes look at the many obstacles the SAM team overcame to make this exhibit the most highly visited in SAM history. Congratulations also go out to the Presidents' Choice Award winner was Duff McKegan with the VA Puget Sound entry, and the Young Professional Award Winner Anna Petrocco from Colehour+Cohen. Is Accreditation in your future?

Accreditation is an important step in your professional career. The Puget Sound Chapter of PRSA supports its members who want to add the APR behind their name. Earning your Accreditation in Public Relations (APR) is an excellent way to do just that! The APR process is a learning process and designed to make you a better practitioner. APRs report a more strategic approach to their work, an increased career profile and often higher salaries. The Puget Sound chapter will be offering free APR classes for PRSA members in Seattle this spring. For more information, contact Accreditation Chair Jacque Coe at coej@bsd405.org

Scholarship Applications Now Being Accepted

Applications for the two $2,500 PRSA Puget Sound scholarships now are being accepted. The Sally Heet Memorial Scholarship and the Horace and Sally Revels Cayton Scholarship are awarded annually to students who are entering their junior or senior years and are pursuing careers in public relations.

If you know of a student who is eligible, encourage them to apply before the April 17, 2012 deadline under the Students section of the PRSA Puget Sound website. Because both scholarship applications require transcripts, students should leave one to two weeks to complete all of the requirements. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Thanks to all of our PRSA Puget Sound Members who contributed to the Scholarship Fund in 2011. Contributions to the fund can be made via the link on the bottom of the PRSA Puget Sound home page at www.prsapugetsound.org. If you are interested in more information or would like to join the Scholarship Committee, contact Jenn Sutton at Jennifer.Sutton@alpa.org.
