September 2012 NewsFlash

Ahh yes, the ol' School Bus is rounding the corner and heading smack into Fall! September always seems like the "new year" even though it's actually the ninth month of a by now "old year!" Your PRSA chapter has a jam-packed line-up for the rest of the year, including the celebration of our 55th Anniversary! The October Annual meeting will highlight some of the great things our chapter has accomplished since 1967. When the Puget Sound Chapter started, there were 33 founding members – today we have about 360 members and still are in the top ten of membership nationally and internationally. Not bad. Read on for more information about what's in store for the balance of 2012.

WAIT! WAIT! Don't Fire Me! Take the ethics challenge

We all know the basics of ethical behavior; don't lie, cheat or steal. But wait--here's a chance to test your knowledge of ethics when it comes to public relations and have some fun with colleagues. Join PRSA Puget Sound for a fun evening.

Thursday, September 27 • 6:00 pm

Palomino in Bellevue, 610 Bellevue Way NE, Bellevue, WA 98004

Come hear about some of the ethical train wrecks of the last few years, with a few hypotheticals thrown in for good measure. Join a team to figure out which scenario is right or blast out the answer to the lightning round questions.

Free parking and the happy hour prices will certainly persuade you to test your ethics answers! See you there!

Congratulations Kelly Bray! New APR

Kelly Bray is the latest candidate to achieve national Accreditation in Public Relations (APR) through the Universal Accreditation Board (UAB) and PRSA. Kelly is Communications Manager for the Lifelong AIDS Alliance and previously was Marketing Communications Manager at Children's Home Society of Washington. Kelly says the experience has been gratifying, "The process to complete my APR was invaluable. Everything, from the textbook readings to the friendships I made in my study groups to the amazing advice I received from PR mentors - it all made the experience incredibly worthwhile. I am SO happy to have achieved this!" Kelly joins approximately 4,000 PRSA members nationwide who are accredited. Congratulations Kelly Bray, APR!

Did you know that our Chapter has the highest number of APRs per capita? If you want to know more about becoming an APR, read on.
