Promoting Good Causes and Work - February YoPro Mixer - February 9th

From local nonprofits to global nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), communicating about social impact and good is serious business. Join YoPro on February 9th at 6 PM for a discussion about giving a voice to good causes with experts from Pyramid Communications. They'll share insights about how they blend thoughtful strategy, compelling communications, and dynamic creative to advance the impact of good causes and organizations around the world.

For more information and to register, visit <http://bit.ly/sea-yopro-feb-2016>

YoPro is a series of networking events held throughout the year. The events are designed to help professionals meet new connections, learn, and grow as a professional. YoPro events are open to the public; there is no age restriction. If you have any questions about the event, please contact Joshua Holland.

South Sound Group Meeting - Building a Brand from Scratch - February 11th

Effective brands reflect the fundamental core and culture of an organization-which can be tough enough to unearth for established businesses. Imagine creating a credible identity for two former competitors with distinct cultures that joined forces to form a new entity. Hear the challenges and opportunities of building a brand from scratch from Tara Mattina, communications director for The Northwest Seaport Alliance, a new joint venture of the ports of Tacoma and Seattle.

The South Sound Group meets at 8 a.m. -- doors open early for networking -- for the one-hour programs in the first floor board room at Metro Parks Tacoma headquarters, 4702 S. 19th St. Cost is $5 for PRSA members, $10 for nonmembers. Please sign in at the door. Refreshments are included, no reservations necessary. If you have additional questions, please contact South Sound Group Chair Jennifer Aalgaard, APR, at j.aalgaard@hotmail.com or (206) 495-2826.

Communicating on a Global Scale, Mobilizing Audiences and Effecting Change

A Conversation with Alex Reid - February 18th

Please join us to hear a very special guest Alex Reid, Head of Global Program Communications | Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

Take part in a conversation to learn how Alex and her team use the communication function to build understanding and advocacy around challenging and polarizing issues ranging from genetically modified organisms to vaccines to reproductive health.

Alex heads the communications for Gates Foundation's global programs, which work to dramatically improve quality of life for billions of people around the world. Strategic communications are critical to achieve the Foundation's ambitious goals. Success requires engaging with partners, defending the Foundation's investments, and collaborating with grantees to educate the media, general public, and other audiences.
