PRSA Scholarship Fund Luncheon

Aboard the Holland America ms Amsterdam cruise ship docked at the Port of Seattle
Aug 14, 2017 - 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM

Please join us for this special end of summer Chapter event benefiting the PRSA Scholarship Fund aboard the Holland America ms Amsterdam docked at Pier 91 of the Port of Seattle. You will enjoy a world class meal on a world class cruise ship, courtesy of Holland America Lines. After the luncheon, you are free to wander around to see the amenities provided on such a grand ship. Or you can just sit and relax for a while with your fellow PR professionals. Best of all, the proceeds will go to our Scholarship Fund.

Registration deadline is August 10, 10:00 am PT.

By Land, Air and Sea: Charting a Course for Complex Communications

A Conversation with Kathy Roeder, Director of Communications - Port of Seattle
South Lake Union Discovery Center, Seattle
Aug 24, 2017 - 10:00 AM - 11:30 AM

Heading up a communications team for an organization with 47 million airport passengers, one million cruise passengers, cargo shipping terminals, commercial fishing terminals, recreational boat marinas and waterfront parks is a full-time job for even the most capable communications pro. Now, add to the mix that the public agency is a veritable hydra in its organizational structure, with its leadership comprised of five publicly elected commissioners and an executive director. Its constituencies run the gamut from international ocean-going shippers to vacation travelers heading to Disneyland, from chowder-serving restaurateurs to angry political protestors intent on making a statement about the Trump administration.

Welcome to a day in the life of Kathy Roeder, the communications director for the Port of Seattle. Join us for a free-wheeling conversation with Kathy, a PR pro, WagEd alum and former communications consultant for the current president of Afghanistan, Ashraf Ghani - talk about the challenges and opportunities she faces in representing the communications interests of the Port of Seattle.

PRSA Welcomes 11 Fellows in 2017, including our Colleague Janelle Guthrie, APR

A few days ago the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) announced the election of 11 new members into the organization's prestigious College of Fellows, an honorary organization within PRSA comprised of more than 350 senior practitioners and educators, each of whom has left a significant footprint on the public relations profession.

Janelle Guthrie, APR, a member of our Chapter and the Communications Director at the Washington Employment Security Department, is among the 2017 College of Fellows inductees, who will be welcomed officially on Oct. 7, in Boston, at a special ceremony and dinner. Take Advantage of the Training Opportunities Included in your PRSA Membership

PRSA members receive access to a number of learning programs, including a library of FREE live webinars and on-demand webinars, as well as discounted registration for in-person seminars and conferences.

One of the live webinars coming this week (Aug. 10) FREE for PRSA Members focuses on "New Rules for Media Pitching in 2017 - What's Working and What's Not in Rapidly Shifting Media Landscape." For details and to register please click here.

So Many Ways to Participate

Volunteer for the PRSA Puget Sound YoPro Committee

Looking for a way to give back and help shape the future of the PR Industry? Join the PRSA Puget Sound YoPro committee. This group helps organize and plan quarterly events for young professionals in the Seattle area. Past events have been held at Edelman, Fearey, Safeco, and a number of other locations throughout the region. The committee offers the opportunity to connect with different businesses and leaders in the Puget Sound area. Past volunteers have helped search and secure venues, develop programming, and execute marketing strategies to attract attendees.

If you're interested in joining or have questions, please contact Joshua Holland (jholland218@gmail.com), YoPro committee lead.

Support the Scholarship Fund

Make a contribution to the PRSA Puget Sound scholarship fund and support future public relations practitioners.
