What's Coming up:

Thanks for attending our headline-making Uber event

Last Thursday our "Driving Clear Communications: Lessons from Uber" event featuring Brooke Steger, the company's general manager in Seattle, included not only some public relations and communications best practices but also a few thought-provoking statements that generated headlines, such as this one at GeekWire. Thanks everyone for attending and please feel free to post your opinions on our Facebook and Twitter pages.

Upcoming Events

April 13, Tacoma - Shift How You Approach Social Media Marketing

What if you started to see social media as a relationship tool rather than a broadcast tool? Social media, if you take an active approach, will generate brand awareness, website traffic and lead generation. Learn how to be assertive in your social media marketing.

Our speaker will be Robert Nissenbaum (@rnissenbaum). Robert is a South Sound-based consultant, speaker, and educator who provides common sense, practical, and actionable social media advice to small business owners and entrepreneurs. Robert's unique approach to social media marketing, based on a decade of experience, has been key in helping small business owners shift their view of social media; to understand it is less about content and more about building relationships and networking.

The South Sound Group meets at 8 a.m. -- doors open early for networking -- for the one-hour programs in the first floor boardroom at Metro Parks Tacoma headquarters, 4702 S. 19th St.

Cost is $5 for PRSA members, $10 for nonmembers. Please sign in at the door.

Refreshments are included, no reservations necessary.

Directions: From I-5 north or south, take SR-16 toward Gig Harbor. Take the 19th Street East exit toward Cheney Stadium, turn right on 19th, and then right into the Metro Parks Tacoma parking lot. Note: Please leave the customer-designated parking open for Metro Parks. If you require special accommodations for a disability, please contact Victoria Lane at least 48 hours in advance of the meeting.

If you'd like more information about the benefits of PRSA membership and how to apply, please check out Puget Sound PRSA's website. If you have additional questions, please contact South Sound Group Chair Victoria Lane, at victorialane03@gmail.com or (317) 250-3154.

May 6, Seattle: Jumpstart 2017 - Call for Speakers!

Jumpstart 2017 will take place at Edelman Seattle on Saturday, May 6, 2017 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The event is designed so that students and professionals looking to start a career in PR can get together, network, collaborate and learn more about the industry. Co-chairs Delaney Berreth and Kate Devaney are looking for speakers (like you) who are interested in being a part of a panel, a roundtable session, or who would like to be an individual presenter.

If you or someone you know would like to participate in this year's event, please email Kate Devaney at ktdevaney@gmail.com for additional details. In addition, please share the registration link with any one you know who may be interested in attending.

So Many Ways to Participate

Volunteer for the PRSA Puget Sound YoPro Committee

Looking for a way to give back and help shape the future of the PR Industry? Join the PRSA Puget Sound YoPro committee. This group helps organize and plan quarterly events for young professionals in the Seattle area. Past events have been held at Edelman, Fearey, Safeco, and a number of other locations throughout the region. The committee offers the opportunity to connect with different businesses and leaders in the Puget Sound area. Past volunteers have helped search and secure venues, develop programming, and execute marketing strategies to attract attendees.

If you're interested in joining or have questions, please contact Joshua Holland (jholland218@gmail.com), YoPro committee lead.
